

RESORT LIVIN' AT THE COTTONTAIL INN: SCOTTSDALE

Our onsite pool is located one courtyard east of the Cottontail Inn. Sadly, the required fencing around it makes the pool less than appealing.

How are you going to have that amazing vacation sitting around the pool? You're in luck! A select few of Scottsdale resorts are FREE and open to the public. Many of these resorts are a short walk or bike ride from the Cottontail Inn. While away your days with a cool drink lounging poolside HERE:

THE SAGUARO ($29 Resort Fee in summer):

This friendly, quiet pool and hot tub are within walking distance of the Cottontail Inn. (Reach over the pool gate and let yourself into the serene oasis if you want to avoid the resort fee). Drinks and food are available in the cafe in the building across the valet. P.S. There are little spaces throughout the grounds with hammocks and other sumptuous treats. The best part? It's an easy walk from the Cottontail Inn. Head west until you hit the Scottsdale Civic Center across Miller Road. Walk until you hit the Saguaro (look for all the bright colors).

HOTEL ADELINE:

We highly recommend visiting Hotel Adeline for peaceful, adult pool time. Order a drink poolside and chat with other locals and hotel guests. They have lovely chaise lounge chairs and chill music. Spend the day here in the sunshine and feel pampered. It's an easy, car-free commute. Jump on our bikes and head north until you hit Camelback Road. Avoid traffic by using the canal (Camelback & Scottsdale Roads). Head north until you get to the traffic light. Turn left and turn right at Embassy Suites. Hotel. Adeline is the next resort.

VALLEY HO (available to locals Monday - Friday in summer):

Find the pool bar and get let into the hip pool scene that is Valley Ho. Take a selfie in front of their "It's Always Sunny in Scottsdale" mural, chill out on the comfy chaise lounges and relax in the hot tub. Cocktails and food available. This mid-century modern hotel is more lively than the other options we've listed. It's also a little further away. Take Indian School Road west (this is not the best road to ride bikes on, but there is a bike lane). Turn left onto Main Street before you hit 68th Avenue and you'll see the hotel (it's very vintage looking) on your right.

THE W:

Looking for fancy-shamncy lounging? Check out the W. This rooftop pool gets lively on weekends when they have a DJ. Otherwise, it's pretty chill and oh-so upscale. It's an easy, car-free commute if you jump on our bikes and head north until you hit Camelback Road. Turn left and it's right there on the left.
